

“Surveying the Landscape”
CLEreg Mid-Year Conference
February 1 – 3, 2009
Albuquerque/Santa Ana Pueblo, NM

Situated between Santa Fe and Albuquerque at the base of the Sandia Mountains, each inch of this exotic New Mexico resort reflects the rich history of the Tamayame. Enjoy the fascinating combination of old and new in the endless activities of this Santa Ana Pueblo hotel – play golf on the nationally-ranked course, take a thrilling hot-air balloon ride or go for a horseback ride.

Our Hotel: Hyatt Regency Tamaya Resort & Spa
1300 Tuyuna Trail
Santa Ana Pueblo, NM 87004
Phone (505)867-1234

This most unique resort, envisioned by the Pueblo of Santa Ana themselves, showcases the Tamayame's love for hospitality and their respect for nature. From the moment you step into our welcoming courtyard, modeled after a traditional dance plaza, you will feel history come alive. From authentic tribal experiences to the most indulgent of natural herbal spa treatments, your visit to this Santa Fe resort will be unlike anything else you have experienced. Whether you are looking for a restful escape or a thrilling adventure, you'll find it here.

For hotel reservations, call (505) 867-1234, before January 6, 2009, and request the ACLEA group rate of $169.00 per night.

Transportation options and driving directions appear on last page of brochure.

CLEreg Networking Dinner:
Monday Evening, February 2nd
El Pinto

10500 4th St. NW, Albuquerque, New Mexico, Phone: (505) 898-1771

El Pinto Restaurant is a favorite dining destination for both locals and visitors. It started as a family run restaurant in 1962 and has become an internationally recognized example of the distinctive flavor of New Mexican cuisine. Recent Best of the City awards included Best Place to Dine on the Patio and Best Chips and Salsa. We will enjoy the Southwest Banquet Buffet in a private dining room.

Cost is $55 per person including one drink with dinner. For children under 12 the cost is $17.50 and children under five are free. (Pre-registration required.) Transportation will not be provided. However, we will gather in the lobby ahead of time to match up those who need a ride with those that have rental cars.

AGENDA & CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Sunday, February 1

3:00 pm – 5:00 pm Committee meetings & Registration
6:30 pm Optional gathering for interested football fans: Details TBD

Monday, February 2

7:30 am – 9:00am CLereg Registration Open & Continental Breakfast Begins

9:00 am – 10:30 am Mapping Resources in Judicial Education
Presented by Dr. Patricia H. Murrell
Director of Leadership Institute, University of Memphis

How does judicial education relate to MCLE? Dr. Murrell of the Leadership Institute will provide an overview of the history and impact of judicial education and lead us in a discussion regarding rationales for different standards.

10:30 am – 10:45 am Break

10:45 am – 11:45 am Judicial Education Panel: Variations Among the States
Honorable Charles Daniels (NM), Elise Geltzer (NY), Dr. Patricia H. Murrell (TN)

This panel will explore the intersection between judicial education and MCLE and provide opportunities to answer questions such as what can we learn from judicial educators and how might we work together? Discussion of specific variations between the states will be encouraged. Why would some states exclude judges from continuing education requirements, while other states have special requirements in place for judges? Do some strategies make more sense than others? Are some approaches easier to administer?

11:45 am – 1:15 pm Lunch on Your Own

1:15 pm – 2:15 pm CLereg Business Meeting

2:15 pm – 2:30 pm Break

2:30 pm – 4:00 pm Scanning the Horizon: Generational Differences in Learning and Technology

Presented by Kathryn Story, M.A., J.D., Consultant

We've heard some interesting observations about the differences in communication styles between the traditional generation, baby boomers, gen x, and millennials. Now we can find out how those preferred communications styles translate into differences in learning styles and the use of technology. To what extent should our approaches to regulation take these differences into account? How much thought should we be putting in to accommodating diverse generations? Are different types of programs equally appropriate to a range of learning styles?

6:00 pm Gather in Lobby for Dinner Transportation – matching drivers and riders

6:30 pm Group Dinner at El Pinto

About CLEreg:

CLEreg is short for the CLE Regulators' Association. Our group has been providing education and networking opportunities for regulators in mandatory CLE jurisdictions since 1986. CLEreg also connects members via a listserv that provides invaluable day-to-day support from peers. We currently represent 43 mandatory CLE jurisdictions and welcome new and existing regulatory jurisdictions from around the world to join us. In most jurisdictions, regulatory duties include program accreditation and attorney recordkeeping duties for CLE program attendance. See our website at www.cleusa.com for more information about CLEreg and the mandatory CLE jurisdictions.

Transportation:

Transportation from the hotel to the resort is costly whether you rent a car, reserve the shuttle, or take a taxi. To save on expenses and environmental impact we encourage you to plan arrival times to allow sharing of transportation with other attendees.

The Hyatt Regency Tamaya is approximately 26 miles (30 minutes) from the Albuquerque Sunport International Airport (ABQ). Shuttle service is available from New Mexitours via vans or sedans that pick up every hour on the hour between 6 am and 6 pm, with after hours pick-up on request. Reservations are required (call 505/771-3739) at least 23 hours before arrival or departure from the hotel. Cost is $40 one way for the first person and $10 for each additional person within the same party. Taxi and limousine service can be booked through the hotel guest services at (505)867-1234. Taxi fares from the airport to the Hyatt Tamaya are approximately $90 one-way.

If you rent a car, complementary self-parking is available at the hotel.
